Eligibility - This position is open to New Zealand and Australian Citizens and Residents

This position is currently only open to applicants who have the legal right to work in New Zealand. This may include holders of NZ work permits depending on the specific details of the work permit. Please check with the Orchestra Manager in this instance. This position will only become open to international applicants if it is not able to be filled at this audition, and in this scenario an announcement will be made on our website.

Important Dates:

Closing date for applications is

Sunday 19 October 2025

Recordings to be received not later than

Sunday 2 November 2025

Please note that NZ time is GMT+12 and the deadline may fall on an earlier day for some candidates

This audition (recorded and in person*) will take place on

Monday 10 November 2025

In person candidates should plan to be available for the entire day.

Audition Information and Procedure:

Being an Auckland Phil employee is about more than technical excellence in your chosen field. We're looking for individuals who resonate with our mission to inspire a life-long love of music in the diverse communities we serve. Beyond performance artistry we also look for how your specific skills and abilities can enhance the Auckland Philharmonia and build into our values. So, even if you don't think you have a typical career trajectory on your resume, we'd still love to hear from you!

We're also not about a one-size-fits-all solution when it comes to recruitment. We want to ensure everyone has an equitable experience too, so to chat through any accommodations or adjustments to participate fully in our recruitment process, please speak to the orchestra manager at auditions@aucklandphil.nz

To apply, interested Candidates must complete the following:

- An application form (to be completed via our website, aucklandphil.nz)
- A CV detailing recent orchestral and other professional experience
- Candidates may optionally include a cover letter outlining any skills or qualities they feel relevant to the role (see job description page 6-7)

As of 18 September 2025, three positions are now available at this audition. For more information about the Principal 1st Violin role and remuneration, please contact auditions@aucklandphil.nz*

Audition requirements

Concerto/Solo Material

- Mozart Violin Concerto No. 4 or 5; 1st movement Exposition only
- Romantic Concerto: Brahms OR Tchaikovsky, OR Sibelius OR Mendelssohn, OR Beethoven 1st movement Exposition only

Selection of Orchestral Excerpts: see our website for list of required orchestral excerpts.

Audition Procedure: Auditions in person

Auditions in person will be conducted in Symphonia Music, 59 Wellington Street, Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland.

If you have indicated that you wish to audition in person in Auckland, confirmation of your audition along with other audition details will be sent to you within two working days of the closing date via email.

The general procedure for the audition day will be as follows:

The audition will be conducted in three rounds, with rounds 1 and 2 screened and the final round unscreened.

Access

The venue has wheelchair access internally and ramp access externally. It also features multiple practice rooms and a quiet waiting area for candidates. There is a drop-off zone outside the building, time-limited parking is available in nearby side-streets, and parking buildings are also nearby.

If you need the online application in a different format, or there is other support we can provide specific to your access needs to participate in the audition please don't hesitate to contact us at auditions@aucklandphil.nz so that we can make the appropriate arrangements.

Accompanists

The Auckland Philharmonia will provide a designated accompanist on the day of the audition for candidates auditioning in person in Auckland, however candidates are at liberty to bring their own accompanist (at their own cost) if they so desire.

Candidates sending recordings must organise their own accompanist for their recording.

Audition Procedure: Recorded Auditions

We accept recordings electronically via www.dropbox.com. Please note that we WILL NOT accept any video files sent as email attachments. Please refer to our Instructions on Electronic Files for Auditions, which will be sent to all candidates in the dropbox link they receive upon receipt of their application.

Refer above for closing date for recordings to be received by the Auckland Philharmonia

Recordings will only be accepted with the following conditions:

- All recordings to be video recordings.
- Content to be exactly as per requirements and set list of orchestral excerpts. Please note that failure adhere to the requirements may result in disqualification. Please consult with the Orchestra Manager if you have any concerns (auditions@AucklandPhil.nz)
- The audition should be recorded as no more than three continuous takes, one take for each round. We define 'continuous takes' as: On the same day, in the same venue, although a reasonable period of rest is permitted between each take, just like the break between rounds when performing in person for an audition.
- Studio-quality recording. Candidates are advised to check the playback quality of their recording before sending! Particular attention should be paid to the quality of the audio.
- Recording Engineer or referee to confirm in writing that the recording is unedited and referee to affirm that the recording is a true and honest representation of the candidate's playing. (A recording declaration form for this purpose is available in the dropbox link candidates will be sent upon receipt of their application)

- 'Post production' – candidates should separate the long files into individual files for each item on the audition list to assist the panel in navigating between items.
- Recordings must arrive by the specified date. Auckland Philharmonia cannot take responsibility for late or lost material.
- Material sent electronically must follow the specified formatting and adhere to the Auckland Philharmonia instructions for sending electronic files (available on our website, in the dropbox link sent to applicants, or from the orchestra manager: auditions@AucklandPhil.nz)

Short Contract Periods

The Auckland Philharmonia may select two or more musicians from the audition for a short Candidate Contract Period before the final selection is made. The Auckland Philharmonia will provide any such candidates with transport and accommodation necessary to complete the short contract period.

Probationary Periods

Once the final selection is made (which may or may not involve a short contract process described above) the winning candidate will be offered the position with a probationary period of usually 12 months. If not resident in Auckland the winning candidate will be provided with one economy class airfare. International travel will be provided only from a major international airport in the country of his or her residence.

The winning candidate upon accepting the position may apply for reimbursement of costs directly related to taking the audition, up to the value of NZ$500, upon provision of receipts.

Consideration for Contract Work

Candidates may indicate on the application form if they wish to be considered for contract work, in the event that the position is not filled at the audition. Please be aware that if you check this box you are giving permission for your identity to be revealed to selected panel members.

Please note that other positions could also be available resulting from this audition.

Who is the Auckland Philharmonia? Our Story

The Auckland Philharmonia is a leading performing arts organisation in Aotearoa New Zealand, serving Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland, the country's largest and most vibrant city, with concerts, events and activities throughout the year.

The Auckland Philharmonia is internationally renowned as an orchestra of high-calibre performance, innovation, passion and versatility. The orchestra presents more than 60 performances annually, showcasing many of the world's finest classical musicians as well as exciting collaborations with New Zealand's most inventive contemporary artists.

We are proud to support both the Royal New Zealand Ballet and New Zealand Opera in their Auckland performances. We also work in partnership with Auckland Arts Festival, Auckland Live and the University of Auckland, among other organisations.

Through our Learn & Participate programme we offer numerous opportunities for over 20,000 young people and adults to get involved with the orchestra, in schools and communities throughout Tāmaki Makaurau.

More than 250,000 people experience the orchestra live each year, in the concert hall and through special events, recordings, livestreams and other media offered to viewers globally.

As a registered charitable trust, we are grateful for the ongoing support of our core funders Auckland Council, Creative New Zealand and Foundation North and many other organisations and individuals, who help us to continue enriching our wonderful city and its people through music.

Some recent recordings include Tristan und Isolde, Respighi Pines of Rome, Fisher and Kavanagh Papatūanuku, and Ravel Piano Concerto in G. You can also learn about our 2025 season and our vibrant community and education programmes here.

Why Auckland?

Why Auckland Philharmonia?

- We believe that you do your best work when you are your whole self so we have a number of benefits for employees including an Employee Assistance Programme offering free counselling, health coaching and career advice, and regular physio visits.
- Paid leave: 4 weeks paid authorised break in the summer shut down plus two further scheduled authorised break weeks throughout the year. Every effort is made to align these break weeks with NZ school holidays. In addition all NZ employees have 10 days paid sick leave, and paid bereavement leave and paid family violence leave if required. NZ government offers 26 weeks paid parental leave for primary carers (see eligibility).
- Reimbursement of NZD500 to cover audition costs to the winner

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

As with many orchestras around the world, we continue our work to ensure the Auckland Philharmonia is an equitable and inclusive workplace. To ensure we're embodying the values and principles of EDI in our workplace culture we are committed to:

- Equitable and transparent pay: pay rates are published in our policies and procedures; every tutti player receives the same pay, every section leader the same as the others, and so forth. This assures that there is no pay discrimination based on gender, race, or other factors.
- Holding open auditions: Every eligible* candidate who comes to audition or sends a recording will be heard.
 - *in some cases auditions will only be open to musicians legally able to work in New Zealand at the time of the audition, due to immigration requirements. The job ad will always make clear whether or not the audition is open to musicians of all nationalities.
- Screened auditions: The first two rounds of our auditions are screened, eliminating as much bias as possible. The final round is unscreened, in an effort to allow our panels to consider the final candidates as whole people – we know that the potential you bring to our team is more than only your performance artistry but also informed by your communication and interpersonal skills, your individual skills, perspectives and backgrounds.
- Recording options: Recorded candidates are heard and assessed with equal weighting to in person candidates. We have a robust audition policy to ensure this, which is reflected by the fact that in the past 4 years, 50% of our auditions have been won by candidates submitting recordings. Allowing recorded auditions means that candidates who may have another professional commitment on the day of our audition, or for whom the travel cost to New Zealand would be prohibitive, are able to participate.
- Fair and transparent probationary periods: the assessment process throughout the probationary year is clearly communicated to the musician. Feedback is always delivered in a formal setting with written minutes, and in the presence of an impartial manager.
- Musician involvement: All musicians have the opportunity to have a voice on committees which shape the organisation, such as players committee, health and safety committee, social committee.
- Community Partnerships: Strong organisational ties and support to Sistema Aotearoa, which provides free music tuition to students at low decile schools in South Auckland, where the students are primarily Pasifika and Māori.
- Supporting Biculturalism: Organisational training in cultural competency has begun in 2024, and we are excited about where this will lead us.
- Showcasing artists from diverse backgrounds: While acknowledging there is much work to be done in our sector, we intentionally programme to ensure we feature artists of traditionally underrepresented demographics on our concert stages.
