Audition Procedure: Auditions in person

Auditions in person will be conducted in Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland, at the Raye Freedman Arts Centre, Silver Road, Newmarket. Please note there is no on-site parking available before 5pm at the venue.

If you have indicated that you wish to audition in person in Auckland, confirmation of your audition along with other audition details will be sent to you within two working days of the closing date via email.

The general procedure for the audition day will be as follows:

The audition will be conducted in three rounds, with rounds 1 and 2 screened and the final round un-screened.

Access

If you have any access needs relating to your participation in the audition, such as wheelchair access, please contact us at auditions@aucklandphil.nz so that we can make the appropriate arrangements.

Accompanists

The Auckland Philharmonia will provide a designated accompanist on the day of the audition for candidates auditioning in person in Auckland, however candidates are at liberty to bring their own accompanist (at their own cost) if they so desire.

Candidates sending recordings must organise their own accompanist for their recording.

Audition Procedure: Recorded Auditions

We accept recordings electronically via www.dropbox.com. Please note that we WILL NOT accept any video files sent as email attachments. Please refer to our Instructions on Electronic Files for Auditions, which will be sent to all candidates in the dropbox link they receive upon receipt of their application.

Refer above for closing date for recordings to be received by the Auckland Philharmonia

Recordings will only be accepted with the following conditions:

- All recordings to be video recordings.
- Content to be exactly as per requirements and set list of orchestral excerpts. Please note that failure adhere to the requirements may result in disqualification. Please consult with the Orchestra Manager if you have any concerns (auditions@AucklandPhil.co.nz)
- The audition should be recorded as no more than three continuous takes, one take for each round. We define 'continuous takes' as: On the same day, in the same venue, although a reasonable period of rest is permitted between each take, just like the break between rounds when performing in person for an audition.
- Studio-quality recording. Candidates are advised to check the playback quality of their recording before sending! Particular attention should be paid to the quality of the audio.
- Recording Engineer or referee to confirm in writing that the recording is unedited and referee to affirm that the recording is a true and honest representation of the candidate's playing. (A recording declaration form for this purpose is available in the dropbox link candidates will be sent upon receipt of their application)
- 'Post production' – candidates should separate the long files into individual files for each item on the audition list to assist the panel in navigating between items.
- Recordings must arrive by the specified date. Auckland Philharmonia cannot take responsibility for late or lost material.
- Material sent electronically must follow the specified formatting and adhere to the Auckland Philharmonia instructions for sending electronic files (available on our website, in the dropbox link sent to applicants, or from the orchestra manager: auditions@AucklandPhil.nz)

Short Contract Periods

The Auckland Philharmonia may select two or more musicians from the audition for a short Candidate Contract Period before the final selection is made. The Auckland Philharmonia will provide any such candidates with transport and accommodation necessary to complete the short contract period.

Probationary Periods

Once the final selection is made (which may or may not involve a short contract process described above) the winning candidate will be offered the position with a probationary period of usually 12 months. If not resident in Auckland the winning candidate will be provided with one economy class airfare. International travel will be provided only from a major international airport in the country of his or her residence.

The winning candidate upon accepting the position may apply for reimbursement of costs directly related to taking the audition, up to the value of NZ$500, upon provision of receipts.

Consideration for Contract Work

Candidates may indicate on the application form if they wish to be for considered for contract work, in the event that the position is not filled at the audition. Please be aware that if you check this box you are giving permission for your identity to be revealed to selected panel members who will convene following the audition to consider your suitability for possible contract work.

Who is the Auckland Philharmonia? Our Story

The Auckland Philharmonia is a leading performing arts organisation in Aotearoa New Zealand, serving Tāmaki Makaurau Auckland, the country's largest and most vibrant city, with concerts, events and activities throughout the year.

The Auckland Philharmonia is internationally renowned as an orchestra of high-calibre performance, innovation, passion and versatility. The orchestra presents more than 60 performances annually, showcasing many of the world's finest classical musicians as well as exciting collaborations with New Zealand's most inventive contemporary artists.

We are proud to support both the Royal New Zealand Ballet and New Zealand Opera in their Auckland performances. We also work in partnership with Auckland Arts Festival, Auckland Live and the University of Auckland, among other organisations.

Through our Learn & Participate programme we offer numerous opportunities for over 20,000 young people and adults to get involved with the orchestra, in schools and communities throughout Tāmaki Makaurau.

More than 250,000 people experience the orchestra live each year, in the concert hall and through special events, recordings, livestreams and other media offered to viewers globally.

As a registered charitable trust, we are grateful for the ongoing support of our core funders Auckland Council, Creative New Zealand and Foundation North and many other organisations and individuals, who help us to continue enriching our wonderful city and its people through music.

Some recent recordings include Beethoven 7, Tchaikovsky 4, Grieg Holberg Suite, and Ravel Piano Concerto in G. You can also learn about our 2024 season and our vibrant community and education programmes here.
